

November 2, 2023
South Hill Artists demo

Marjorie Mankin & Cathleen Livingston Carlson

What Makes a “Good” Painting and How to Plan for It

Project Description

During this demo, Marjorie and Cathleen will share the basics of design and composition as they apply to planning a painting. The demo will be sprinkled with hands-on opportunities to practice the concepts, and conclude with applying them to your next painting.

Materials

pencil
your favorite painting materials

Artists' Bios

Marjorie Mankin has been teaching art for over fifty years. She has instructed grade school children through adults. Her teaching experience includes Faith Lutheran Grade School, Peninsula School District, Bellarmine Prep, Evergreen Lutheran High School, and Clover Park School District evening classes. Marjorie has been a docent at the Washington State Fair Fine Art Show for 57 years.

Cathleen Livingston Carlson completed a Studio Art degree from Occidental College, L.A. She has experience in logo and graphic design, and taught a wide range of visual arts from Beginning Drawing, Jewelry/Metalsmith, Painting, to AP Photography in her 33-year career as a high school teacher. Cathleen is accidentally the superintendent of the Washington State Fair Fine Art Show.