President's Message:

Greetings to all Current and New SHA Members!

"The object isn't to make art, it's to be in that wonderful state which makes art inevitable."

-Robert Henri-

As artists, we know that this "wonderful state" is not just about brushes, paint, or paper — it's about presence. It's about stepping into a space where curiosity leads, where color and light feel alive, and where our hearts move freely between imagination and creation.

In our art community, we celebrate that state — the quiet moments in the studio, the laughter shared at workshops, the courage to keep exploring when inspiration flickers. Each of us brings a unique spark to this collective energy, and together we create not just artwork, but connection, discovery, and joy.

As we move through this season, may we all find ourselves more often in that beautiful, inevitable place where art begins — within us.

Warmly,

Doreen Koch Allen —
SHA President - "South Hill Artists"
